

THE CENTRE FOR THE SCIENCE OF LEARNING AT WESTERN UNIVERSITY PRESENTS:

RISE!

READING INSTRUCTION BASED ON SCIENCE AND EVIDENCE

A Speaker Series designed to help educators and others understand and implement the Ontario Right-to-Read recommendations

ENCORE PRESENTATION FROM KIM LOCKHART!

Kim Lockhart is an elementary teacher in Kingston, Ontario and an advocate for equitable access to evidence-based literacy instruction for students with reading disabilities. For the past 5 years, Kim has been using a structured literacy approach to reading and writing with her French Immersion students. She has an Orton-Gillingham Classroom Educator certificate, has completed several online Science of Reading courses, and has adopted a research-based approach to reading instruction for her FSL students. Kim also has a Master of Education degree from Queen's University.
